

Mr. Livingston Vann III

Mr. Livingston Vann III, 74, of Monrovia, died Friday, March 5, 2010, at Frederick Memorial Hospital. He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Mrs. Barbara Badger Vann.

Born Feb. 22, 1936, in Washington, he was the son of the late Livingston Jr. and Mary Wells Vann, formerly of Northwest, D.C.

Being raised in the Presbyterian church by his parents was not an excuse for him not to use his beautiful voice to sing in the National Cathedral Choir as a youngster. He graduated from Fork Union Military Academy in 1954. He entered the U.S. Army and served from 1954 to 1957. He then went to work for Safeway stores as a meat cutter from August 1957 until his retirement due to disability in June 1997.

He was a lifetime member of the American Legion, a gracious gift from his son, Jamie and family.

In addition to his wife, he leaves to cherish his memory his sons, Livingston (Jamie) Vann IV and wife, Mary Ann, of Mount Airy (son of Betty Bone); and Darrell Vann and wife, Mary, of Thurmont (son of Betty Lamb); and with his wife raised the following children, Theresa Drennan of Brunswick; the late Phillip Pratt Jr.; Rob Pratt and wife, Nicole, of Knoxville; Colleen St. Clair and husband, Carl; the late Christopher Vann; and Kevin Vann and a special friend, Felisha Elder. Mr. Vann is also survived by 15 grandchildren, with Jessica being extra close to him; and one great-grandchild.

Services and interment will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements are by Keeney and Basford, P.A., Funeral Home, Frederick.
