

Mrs. Michelle Williams

Mrs. Michelle Williams, 71, of Frederick, died Sunday, Jan. 3, 2010, in her home. She was the beloved wife of the late James Thomas Williams, who predeceased her Sept. 10, 2009. They were married for 53 years.

Born Feb. 1, 1938, in LaRochelle, France, she was the daughter of the late Emile and Gabrielle Barrieux Boutin.

She was a gifted seamstress who loved crocheting and knitting. She had a love of cooking and was known as a gourmet cook. Mrs. Williams was devoted to raising her children and spent her life devoted to her family while her husband worked.

Mrs. Williams is survived by four children, Erick Williams of Walkersville, Antoinette Flook and husband, Vince, of Frederick, Annick Castle of Frederick, and James Williams and wife, Michele, of Midland, Ga. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Stephanie Williams Anderson, who died in 1983.

She is also survived by many family members in France.

The family will receive friends from 10 to 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 7, at Keeney and Basford Funeral Home, 106 E. Church St., Frederick. Funeral services for Mrs. Williams will begin at 11 a.m. from the funeral home chapel. Officiating will be Deacon John L. Manley.

Interment will be in Resthaven Memorial Gardens, Frederick. Serving as pallbearers will be her grandchildren, Jason Baker, Carl Castle III, Kevin Flook, Mark Flook, Ryan Flook and Jameson Williams.
